

BSW and MSW Newest Scholars

We are proud of the achievements of our recent BSW and MSW Scholarship winners from the Nassau Schools of Social Work. This past year, Valerie St. Bernard, BSW '22, from LIU Post and Rebecca Schoenfeld, a first year MSW student from Adelphi were the Nassau recipients. Courtney Oehl, MSW '21, Adelphi's MSW scholarship winner for the previous year, is featured on the Scholarship Trailer and spoke poignantly about the childhood experiences that inspired her to join our field. In the trailer, she relays how when growing up next to the group home that her mother supervised, the residents were always her "friends."
