

ROCKLAND CHAPTER

SoulCollage® as a Clinical and Personal Development Tool

by Cynthia Shaw, MA, LMHC

DATE: Sunday, December 4, 2016

LOCATION: *Romano Student Center at
St. Thomas Aquinas College
Route 340, Sparkill, NY

*Please note we will be in the Romano Center, not in McNelis Commons

SCHEDULE:

8:45-9:45am Board Meeting
10:00-11:30am Presentation
11:30-12:30pm Discussion and light meal

DESCRIPTION:

This will be an experiential workshop where Ms. Shaw will lead participants in making a SoulCollage® card and in having a discussion as to how this method can be used to deepen clients' work as well as be used by the clinician in their own personal work.

Cynthia Shaw, MA, LMHC is a licensed psychotherapist and artist from Nyack, NY. For almost 30 years, she has been guiding people past what keeps them stuck and towards their deepest desires. She works to help people create clarity and vision for life using traditional talk therapy, mindfulness techniques, and the expressive arts. www.cynthia-shaw.com

No advanced registration is required

*Please note we will be in the Romano Center, not in McNelis Commons

Costs:

NYSSCSW Members - Free

Non-members - $20

Students & Seniors - Free

For additional information, please contact Kevin Melendy at kvmel@optonline.net